From Central States Synod

Tim Anderson, Central States Synod Communications Director, recently included the article referenced below in his synod-wide communication. It comes with the gentle and loving reminder to take precautions before responding to messages that are from "wolves in sheep's clothing." For years now, we have been warned against giving out personal information to sources that are posing as something other than they really are. These scam artists are getting more sophisticated in their attempts. Recently, one set up an email address with Pastor Stephanie's name, that would at first glance seem legitimate when sent to the church office email. But it was bogus, so we blocked any further communication from coming in. Since it is becoming more prevalent it seems, we are sharing this helpful information for protecting yourselves from becoming victims of fraud.

Greetings Friends of Christ Lutheran Church,

Recently I've been reading a lot about the concept of liminality. I even purchased a book recommended for church leaders entitled How To Lead When You Don't Know Where You're Going: Leading in a Liminal Season, by Susan Beaumont. I like the groundedness of this book, as none of us really knows where we are going because of changing conditions, but we can still lead and live out of our centeredness in God's faithfulness.

Liminality is living in between. It's a stage that you and I have been in together these past 15 1/2 months. We have also called it Transition, because you are transitioning from the leadership of the former pastors to the leadership of a future called pastor. So that is a part of it. Certain functions have needed to happen to move through this process and so far they seem to be on track. Thanks be to God for the leadership of your members!

But deeper than the structured details of Transition is what is being formed as the congregation has lived in the state of liminality. Some have labeled church liminality as a heightened experience of "already/not yet." That kind of language reminds us of Jesus' teaching of the Kingdom of God. The Kingdom is already here, yet continuing to be more fully revealed and experienced. You are already the people of God and in my estimation, living into that identity and mandate quite noticeably, yet you are traveling on to something new, with ever more significant ways to live into that on the horizon.

I am confident that CLC has a bright future. I assure you that I pray daily that what God is doing to bring that into fruition for you will be revealed clearly, both in the pastor who will be called AND in the shape the congregation continues to take as people who understand your own calling as God's beloved children and community of faith.

Thank you for your prayers for me and for your thoughtfulness in inquiring how I am doing in this time of liminality. Your support, encouragement and love have been extraordinary and are so much appreciated. While I am also in a state of liminality, I am confident that when my season of serving God through Christ Lutheran has passed, that God's guidance and care will be not only sufficient but abundant. As it will be for you.

With Gratitude for being on this journey with you,
Pastor Stephanie

Calling of Pastoral Candidates

Do you know someone you think would be a good candidate to be pastor?

The call committee is ready to receive the names of people who would be interested in becoming pastor of Christ Lutheran Church. If you know of someone you feel would be a good candidate, please read the letter which is referenced in the email or in the church office and fill out the referral form.

Please note the list of the congregation's priorities as determined by the transition team. Please mail your referral to the call committee care of the church. The committee will forward your material to the bishop's office. That office handles all candidate referrals. They will contact the person you suggest to see if he or she is interested and take it from there.

Meet Pastor Kendra Nolde, DEM for Central States Synod

Council recently approved a request for Pastor Kendra to use a small office upstairs at Christ Lutheran so she has moved in and is ready to serve in her new position with Central States Synod.

These are Pastor Kendra's words when interviewed by Pastor Stephanie:

"I have come out of retirement to take on a half-time position as Director of Evangelical Mission (DEM) for Central States Synod. As DEM I will have responsibility for accompanying new mission starts, supporting the congregational vitality emphasis of the synod and working with area ministry strategies in Missouri. My plan is to be in the office on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays, except when I will be on-site with various area ministries."

Pastor Kendra served congregations in Chicago, northern IL, and the St Louis area for over 36 years, including her most recent pastorate with Gethsemane Lutheran Church. Her husband, Jeff Lindgren, is a retired ELCA pastor.

Pastor Kendra appreciates having the office space to use as home base for her work. Her presence also provides an opportunity for CLC to grow in awareness and support of synod ministries.

Please welcome Pastor Kendra when you see her.

ADULT FORUM

Adult Forum is held every Sunday in the fellowship hall between services, at 9:15 to 10:15am.

October 6—Madeline Seefeldt, Outreach Coordinator of L'Arche St. Louis will explain the community's philosophy, mission, and way of life. L'Arche St. Louis, which rents space in the Mead Center, is an interfaith community of people with and without disabilities who live and work together. It is one of 19 L'Arche communities in the United States.

October 13—A panel consisting of Detective Fred Bell of the Webster Groves Police Department and Officer Peter Jordan of the Olivette Police, moderated by John Hoffmann will answer questions about police practices and training and will discuss how the police interact with the community. They have asked to see questions before hand, especially ones that involve statistics.

October 20—Dale Kreienkamp, President of Human Capital Partners and author of How Long, O Lord, How Long, a book of devotions for the unemployed, will speak on the Journey of Unemployment. He will tell the challenges and emotions of being unemployed so we can better help a friend or family member through this transition. He will tell how God uses the time of unemployment to draw people closer to Him.

October 27—Jesse Helton, Professor of Social Work at Saint Louis University, will speak on Justice, specifically how people's view of what is just and fair depends on their world view. And how understanding those differences can enable us to speak constructively to each other.

God's Work. Our Hands

Central States Synod to Serve as Lutheran Disaster Response Affiliate

Lutheran Disaster Response (LDR) has partnered with the Central States Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America allowing the Central States Synod to serve as the LDR affiliate for Missouri and Kansas. Previously LDR had partnered with social ministry organizations such as Lutheran Family and Children's Services of Missouri and Lutheran Social Services of Kansas.

LDR is providing the funding and resources necessary to make this partnership possible. As a result, the Central States Synod has hired Mr. Ben Perrin to serve as the new Director of Central States Synod Disaster Response. Mr. Perrin previously served as the Manager of Disaster Services for Lutheran Family and Children's Services of Missouri (LFCS). Mr. Perrin will office in St. Louis, MO, however, he will report directly to Bishop Candea at the Synod office. In his role, Ben will communicate with congregations and conferences across the entire synod to share how they can best be involved in active disaster work.

Mr. Perrin has built a career in disaster-related work and as a Licensed Professional Counselor in the state of Missouri working with children and families on a variety of issues. Combining those experiences has proven advantageous when addressing the needs at all stages of disaster response and recovery. Mr. Perrin currently serves as the chair of the St. Louis City/County Community Organizations Active in Disaster (COAD), the Vice Chair of the Governor's Faith-Based and Community Service Partnership in Disaster Recovery in Missouri, as a member of the Executive Committee for the St. Louis Area Regional Coalition of COADs, and as a member of numerous COADs and Long Term Recovery Groups (LTRG) throughout the state of Missouri. Additionally, he is involved regionally through the LDR Midwest Region group as a member of the Midwest Consortium for Disaster Services (MCDS), a consortium through LDR working with Lutheran Social Services of Minnesota, North Dakota, and South Dakota. As the Director of Central States Synod Disaster Response, Ben will expand this network to include service to Kansans.

Known as the church of "God's work. Our hands.," the ELCA emphasizes the saving grace of God through faith in Jesus Christ, unity among Christians and service in the world.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN OUR COMMUNITY

CROPWALK October 6, 2019

Together, we can help end hunger in our community and around the world!

CLC is putting together a team to participate in the 2019 St. Louis CROP Hunger Walk that will take place at Eden Seminary in Webster Groves. The walk is sponsored by Church World Service (CWS), and helps area organizations combat poverty and hunger. Check-in begins at 4:30 pm, with the walk at 5:00 (1-mile or 3-mile routes), and a concert following at 7pm. It is a great opportunity to get some exercise, support a great cause, and hopefully make new friends. Anyone interested in walking will need to register at <http://www.crophungerwalk.org/saintlouismo>. From there you can join the Christ Lutheran WG Team, make a donation, and invite others to do the same. Please also either e-mail Erin Eftink at erineftink@sbcglobal.net or add your name(s) to the sign-up sheet in the fellowship hall, so we can get an idea about how many people are interested.

Those in the congregation who wish to support the CLC team through a donation can do so on-line at <https://www.crophungerwalk.org/saintlouismo/Donate/>, and from there choose an individual person or the Christ Lutheran WG Team. Those who wish to do so via the church offering can use the green envelopes with CROP Hunger Walk labeled on the front, checks payable to CWS/CROP. Thank you so much for your support!

For more information visit www.crophungerwalk.org/saintlouismo

Local beneficiaries again this year are Operation Food Search, Circle of Concern, and Webster-Rock Hill Ministries. Help us celebrate 50 years of walking for CROP!

Location: Eden Theological Seminary, 475 E. Lockwood Ave., Webster Groves, MO 63119

Walk Time: 5:00 p. m., Walk Distance: 1 Mile and 3 mile routes
