

ONE IN CHRIST

Week of January 10 to January 16, 2023

PASTOR'S NOTE

Isaiah 42: 5-7

⁵Thus says God, the LORD, who created the heavens and stretched them out, who spread out the earth and what comes from it, who gives breath to the people upon it and spirit to those who walk in it: ⁶I am the LORD, I have called you in righteousness, I have taken you by the hand and kept you; I have given you as a covenant to the people, a light to the nations, ⁷to open the eyes that are blind, to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon, from the prison those who sit in darkness.

Matthew 3:13-17

¹³Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to be baptized by him. ¹⁴John would have prevented him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?" ¹⁵But Jesus answered him, "Let it be so now; for it is proper for us in this way to fulfill all righteousness." Then he consented. ¹⁶And when Jesus had been baptized, just as he came up from the water, suddenly the heavens were opened to him and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him. ¹⁷And a voice from heaven said, "This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased."

Questions for Reflection

Read these passages slowly, and reflect on them.

Where do you feel God's breath and spirit in your life?

What does Isaiah mean when he says God has given us as a covenant to the people?

How does this connect to our baptismal promises?

Let Us Pray

God of promise, as we are renewed in our baptisms, help us to entrust ourselves to you, and embody your love, healing, and abundance for those around us. In the name of your son Jesus, who came to show us that we are beloved. Amen.

January 22

January 29

February 5

Sunday, January 8. In Pastor Roger Ruff words, he offered, “a Flyover of the Gospel of Matthew.” Matthew’s Gospel, the longest of the four canonical Gospels, is the source of the Gospel readings for the liturgical year that began after Thanksgiving. Written around 80-90 CE, or fifty to sixty years after the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus, the Gospel is written from a the point of view of the Jews of the period.

It begins with a genealogy of Jesus, tracing his lineage back to Abraham. The Gospel repeatedly quotes Hebrew Scriptures to show how events in Jesus’ life and his actions fulfill prophecies from the past. And throughout it shows Jesus credentials as the true Messiah and as the supreme teacher and interpreter of Mosaic Law.

Major themes are: the abiding presence of God; Jesus as the Son of God; Jewish Law and Christian Faith; people of little faith; and a critique of Power. Although it is written for an audience familiar with Jewish teaching of the time, it ends with the Great Commission, Matthew 28: 19-20.

Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.

Pastor Ruff said that in the end study of Matthew’s Gospel enriches and nurtures personal faith. Or, in the words of an old Christian prayer, “Read, Mark and inwardly Digest” it.

SO WE CAN WELCOME....

Refreshment Team Volunteers

Please volunteer for refreshments in December and January using the sign up genius refreshment link below.

This is a fun and easy way to be of service to our church family. Store bought or homemade food is loved. Refreshment volunteers bring and serve snacks with water. Lemonade mix is provided by the church.

Clean up involves cleaning the kitchen countertops and any dishes used to serve.

Leaving the service early to set up or setting up before the service starts is part of the commitment.

Time commitment is 45-60 minutes depending on the Sunday. Register as a family, individual, with a friend or group.

Dec 18th is not on the list because it is sponsored by Sunday School families in celebration of the Christmas program.

MCU's Annual Meeting is Thursday, January 19, 5:30-8:30pm. We will gather with people from all over the St Louis area, and people of faith in Webster Groves will have opportunity to talk with one another and plan for a year of building community in 2023. Join Pastor Meagan at this important meeting!

2023 Council Openings: We Need You!

We have a few openings for the 2023 Church Council, which will begin meeting in late January. We would love for you to consider being a part of this special group! Each chair serves a two-year term and meets once a month with the rest of Council to discuss and decide important church issues. Below is a description of all the positions that are open. We hope that you will prayerfully consider joining the Council in continuing the good works at Christ Lutheran Church. If you are interested, please send Lisette an email or call the office!

Inreach: Responsible for ensuring a fulfilling experience at Christ Lutheran for current members, during and outside of the service. This involves making sure people have access to the service and soliciting ideas for possible improvement. Inreach also provides support to other committees, especially the Fellowship and Worship committees, as there is a fair amount of overlap between them. During COVID, Inreach has helped coordinate all the technology for the Zoom church services. Other jobs include planning the 4th of July festivities, welcome and birthday parties.

Outreach: Responsible for helping promote Christ Lutheran Church in the local community, raising awareness and piquing the interest of potential new members/the community in CLC services, events, etc. While each outreach chair is empowered to work with their committee to determine a plan and initiatives for their work, a few common, primary responsibilities include planning and promoting holiday services and other events open to the community.

Worship (co-chair with John Hoffman): Work with Worship committee and musicians to help to plan worship, including scheduling worship volunteers who assist with services on Sunday mornings.

Properties: Coordinate all property-related projects. Schedule repair services as needed.

Vigil For Black Lives

Every Friday from 6:00-6:30, congregations on Lockwood join together to stand for black lives, in our community and beyond. We take a short half an hour each week to be visible on Lockwood with signs of solidarity with our black siblings. It is a small way for us to make it known that we stand against racism in all the ways it impacts all of us. Please join us!
