

ONE IN CHRIST

Week of July 19 - July 25, 2021

PASTOR'S WORD

Psalm 139:7-10

Where can I go from your spirit? Or where can I flee from your presence?

⁸ If I ascend to heaven, you are there; if I make my bed in Sheol, you are there.

⁹ If I take the wings of the morning and settle at the farthest limits of the sea,

¹⁰ even there your hand shall lead me, and your right hand shall hold me fast.

Summer is often a season of travel and vacation, and this year more than most we know it is a precious privilege to spend time with family and friends and explore new places. Whether you are travelling to foreign lands, visiting familiar home-places to be with beloveds, moving to a new home unexpectedly or by thoughtful plan, welcoming travelers coming to spend time in your home, beginning a new journey of parenthood, or reflecting on all of the places and people you have known in travels past, I hope these words will bless you on your way and that you know the presence of God wherever you go.

For the Traveler, by John O'Donohue
from To Bless the Space Between Us

Every time you leave home, Another road takes you Into a world you were never in.

New strangers on other paths await. New places that have never seen you
Will startle a little at your entry.
Old places that know you well Will pretend nothing Changed since your last visit.

When you travel, you find yourself Alone in a different way,
More attentive now To the self you bring along,
Your more subtle eye watching You abroad; and how what meets you
Touches that part of the heart That lies low at home:

How you unexpectedly attune To the timbre in some voice,
Opening in conversation You want to take in To where your longing Has pressed hard enough
Inward, on some unsaid dark, To create a crystal of insight You could not have known
You needed To illuminate Your way.

When you travel, A new silence Goes with you,
And if you listen, You will hear What your heart would Love to say.

A journey can become a sacred thing:
Make sure, before you go, To take the time
To bless your going forth,
To free your heart of ballast
So that the compass of your soul Might direct you toward The territories of spirit
Where you will discover More of your hidden life,
And the urgencies That deserve to claim you.

May you travel in an awakened way,
Gathered wisely into your inner ground;
That you may not waste the invitations Which wait along the way to transform you.

May you travel safely, arrive refreshed, And live your time away to its fullest;
Return home more enriched, and free to balance the gift of days which call you.

If so please contact Pastor Meagan to register your child for communion class. We will hold lessons, make bread, and attendants will be recognized in worship.

Is your child entering 7th Grade? Pastor Meagan will be forming a class to prepare for Confirmation. Please email or call Pastor Meagan if your child will be attending class.

Stewardship & Offerings

We continue to worship and reach out to people in different ways than we're traditionally accustomed. Staff and members are reaching out proactively to make sure everyone in our congregation is cared for, and connected, as much as possible. We are re-imagining ministry! Now more than ever, it takes all of us to make that happen.

We can continue to fund our church and the important work we're doing with a few easy clicks:

1. Visit our donation website directly or go to www.christwg.org and scroll down to the 'Give Now' button.
2. You may make a one time or recurring gift. There are NO FEES to withdraw directly from your bank account. Fees do apply for debit/credit card transactions.
3. Optional: set up a profile to be able to change your recurring gifts at any time or view your giving history.
4. Want to walk through the steps with someone? Contact Kate Hoerchler, 314-805-1751, katehoerchler@gmail.com

If you prefer to make your offering by check or cash, there are mailing envelopes included in your offering envelope package.

Zoom Bible Study, Tuesday July 20th, 10:00 am

The Tuesday Morning Bible Study group will meet at 10 a.m. in the church's parish hall. A year ago, we embarked upon an in-depth study of King David, after which we've slogged our way through First and Second Kings. Now that we've reached the end of Kings, we intend to focus on several of the letters of the Apostle Paul.

All are welcome to join us. Just have one or more bibles with you, and plan to enjoy the discussion. Face masks will be required for the participants, and those who are unable to meet in person will be able to join us via the Zoom connection that is posted at the church's website.

Dolly passed away on Sunday, July 12, 2020. She was 98 years old. Bob, her husband of 60 years, died in 2005. Loving mother to John and his wife Adela; Ted and his wife Vicki; Mike and his wife Sandra; and Steve and his wife Cindy. Wonderful oldest sister to Margie, Ted and Joan. She was a longtime kindergarten teacher in Pattonville schools and a longtime organist at Christ Lutheran in Webster Groves. Her greatest joy was singing in the choir, any good choir. Her gardens of iris and her amaryllis were her gift to nature and nature's gift to her. The flower above was drawn by Dolly's grand-daughter Jade.

Dolly was a fun person to be around. She is dearly missed by all.

Vigil For Black Lives

Lockwood Ave, every Friday, 6:00-6:30pm

Last week we acknowledged two anniversaries: Juneteenth, the celebration of the message of the Emancipation Proclamation reaching the last of the people living in slavery in Galveston, TX, June 17, 1865, two and a half years after it was signed; and the murder of 9 black people at Emmanuel Episcopal AME in Charleston by a man who believed them to be a threat because of the color of their skin June 19, 2015, just six years ago. These two anniversaries taken together in June each year illustrate clearly that progress has been made. AND, the truth is that in many ways, racism and its impacts still rage today. 156 years after the last of the people living in chattel slavery were freed, access to voting rights is still restricted and threatened, and the well-being, safety, and lives of people of color are still at risk every day.

Every Friday, from 6:00-6:30, congregations on Lockwood join together to stand for black lives, in our community and beyond. We take a short half an hour each week to be visible on Lockwood with signs of solidarity with our black siblings. It is a small way for us to make it known that we stand against racism in all the ways it impacts all of us. Please join us!

Memorial Chapel

Many in our congregation and our families have died this past year, and we have all experienced many losses in our lives and communities. The grief is real. As we open our building again, we are also opening a space to share that grief in community. The side chapel off the sanctuary will be a place to visit, pray, light a candle, leave pictures of loved ones, and write down the losses you carry so that we can hold them together. Those with keys are welcome anytime. The building will be unlocked and the Memorial Chapel will be open every Sunday for one hour after Worship, starting May 30, and anytime during the week by arrangement—contact Lisette or Pastor Meagan to let them know when you would like to come.
