

ONE IN CHRIST

Week of September 27 - October 3, 2021

PASTORS WORD

After the coming of the Holy Spirit on the disciples at Pentecost, the people are confused and astounded to hear them speaking words of promise and vision, in a way that those among them speaking any language could understand. And their first reaction is, understandably, fear. How could this be happening? What does it mean? How might what is happening change them, change their world?

Peter then speaks words that both comfort and challenge, I think. No, they are not drunk. Yes, this is really happening. Yes, everything is about to change!

Acts 2:14-21

<sup>14</sup> But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. <sup>15</sup> Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. <sup>16</sup> No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

<sup>17</sup> 'In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh,
and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
and your young men shall see visions,
and your old men shall dream dreams.

<sup>18</sup> Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit;
and they shall prophesy.

<sup>19</sup> And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist.

<sup>20</sup> The sun shall be turned to darkness
and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day.

<sup>21</sup> Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'

In these days of fall 2021, as we begin our new program year and experience some re-imagining and re-creating of our own ministries, and envision where God is leading us, we are invited to notice the Spirit among us. To trust that God is at work, in our ministries and our lives. To throw open the doors, step out of the familiar, and see what the Spirit is doing. And do it, as the disciples did, together.

Where do you see the Spirit at work at Christ Lutheran in these days?

What frightens or intimidates you? What brings you excitement and joy?

Where are you called to enter into what God is doing to bring the kin-dom of love, grace, and justice, to this world?

PASTORS WORD

A Pastoral Reflection on Mental Illness . . . . .

Many of you are probably aware that two young people died by suicide in the last couple of weeks on the St. Louis University Campus. The students, faculty, and staff are reeling from grief, anxiety, and fear, and struggling to find resources for all who need mental health care in the midst of this crisis. In addition, another young person from St Louis who was a student at Ellon died by suicide this week.

Please keep these communities, families, and leaders providing care in your prayers, and offer support and love to those you know who are part of those communities. Here are a few important reminders, in light of the reality of mental illness.

Depression, anxiety, and other mental illnesses are NOT moral failings. They are illnesses, just like cancer, or heart disease. Like cancer or heart disease, mental illnesses often can be successfully treated. And sometimes, like with other illnesses, it can be very serious and even fatal, despite the best efforts of all involved.

The trauma, stress, and isolation of the pandemic has added to mental health challenges. It has exacerbated mental illnesses that were well-managed and cared for, and some have recognized challenges that didn't impact their lives before. If you are experiencing depression, anxiety, or other symptoms that feel surprising, you are not alone.

The God who created you loves you without condition. No judgement or criticism, just unconditional mercy and love. God knows all your thoughts, struggles, joys, and pain, and is with you even when you feel alone.

We as a community of faith strive to hold in prayer and love all who live with mental illnesses, knowing that we will do so imperfectly. We are not mental health professionals and cannot counsel, but can listen and remind you of God's love for you when it's hard or impossible to see it for yourself. We hope you will find here a safe place to share your journey and find support, if that would be helpful for you.

If you or a loved one are living with mental illness and need help finding resources or just a listening ear, please reach out to Pastor Meagan or Faith Community Nurse Carolyn.

St Louis Provident Crisis Line 314-647-4357 is available 24/7 for anyone experiencing a mental or emotional crisis, to listen and help you discover resources and next steps to overcoming your challenges.

You don't have to walk alone.

Dinner will be provided!

Bring your lawn chairs and blankets to the front yard of the church. The services will be geared more towards families, but all are welcomed to attend! The service itself will feel familiar in some places but different in others - we are excited to reimagine prayer, offering, and especially communion. In fact, communion will be a shared meal that we will provide.

Please let Jess Gunther know if you plan to attend so we can order enough food (jessicalgunther@gmail.com).

We plan to make this a weekly service starting in October until it gets too cold outside.

Stewardship & Offerings

We continue to worship and reach out to people in different ways than we're traditionally accustomed. Staff and members are reaching out proactively to make sure everyone in our congregation is cared for, and connected, as much as possible. We are re-imagining ministry! Now more than ever, it takes all of us to make that happen.

We can continue to fund our church and the important work we're doing with a few easy clicks:

1. Visit our donation website directly or go to www.christwg.org and scroll down to the 'Give Now' button.
2. You may make a one time or recurring gift. There are NO FEES to withdraw directly from your bank account. Fees do apply for debit/credit card transactions.
3. Optional: set up a profile to be able to change your recurring gifts at any time or view your giving history.
4. Want to walk through the steps with someone? Contact Kate Hoerchler, 314-805-1751, katehoerchler@gmail.com

Stephen Ministry Support (www.stephenministries.org)

The Stephen Ministers of Christ Lutheran Church provide individual, confidential support to congregation members during difficult times. And these are particularly difficult times. Symptoms of depression and anxiety have significantly increased during the coronavirus pandemic. Isolation has led to feelings of loneliness, sadness, hopelessness, stress, anger, and loss of employment and income. Additionally, the challenges of life such as chronic illness, loss and grief, and family and/or marital problems are always present. Stephen Ministers listen, encourage, and offer emotional and spiritual care to people experiencing such difficulties. If you could benefit from the one-to-one confidential support of a Stephen Minister, contact Stephen Leaders Linda Griffith (314-504-1274) or Carolyn Crowe (314-277-2164).

Children and Youth Ministry Coordinator!

CLC is planning to hire a Children and Youth Ministry Coordinator, to start as soon as the hire process is complete! We wanted you to be the first to know. The Job Summary is below. Internal and external candidates will be joyfully considered. To apply E-mail Resume and Cover Letter to Lisette Kreidler office@christwg.org, and contact Lisette via e-mail or phone 314-962-6011 with questions.

Do you know someone who would support Sunday School and Youth volunteers, and minister well with children, youth, and families? Pass this on to them or let us know!

Hire Team

Job Summary

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 3rd. A DAY TO REMEMBER OUR COMPANION CHURCH IN RUSSIA

Would your congregation become a sponsor congregation for Pastor Alexander Lapochenko for one month of the year?

Following a companion synod visitation to Russia in 2013, the Central States Synod committed to providing financial support for one of only two ordained Pastors in the Russian Far East, Pastor Alexander Lapochenko. Our Synod's financial support for Pastor Lapochenko is as important as ever, however, contributions for his support have lagged over the past year and the companion synod team is looking for a more organized way of funding his support than just depending on random contributions.

Rev. Alexander Lapochenko on the right with Pastor Jon Brudvig, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, Great Bend during the 2017 visitation by a group from the Synod.

We are looking for 12 congregations or church groups to commit to providing one month of support for Pastor Lapochenko each year. That amounts to $500 for one month or $6000.00 per year. For more information about Pastor Lapochenko and his ministry, please click on the following link and view the zoom conversation that you will find there. <https://www.css-elca.org/russia>.

The Central States Synod has been in a Companion Church relationship with the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of the Urals, Siberia and the Far East (ELSUSFE) with a special focus on the Far East since the early 90s. The 9 congregations in the Russian Far East as well as all across Russia have been slowly reemerging following decades of persecution and suppression by the Soviet government. Since that time there have been numerous visits both to Russia as well as visits from our Russian "Cousin Christians" to the Central States Synod. Our Christian partners in Russia find our visits to be a source of great encouragement, and visitors to Russia find their generous hospitality and examples of faithfulness and resourcefulness as they live out their faith and engage in ministry to be very inspiring.

The Central States Synod is the only synod in the ELCA who is partnering with the Lutheran Church in Asian Russia and our continued support is critically important. Please visit the Companion Synod page on the Synod Website for more information. And....

Please pray for Bishop Alexander Scheierrmann, Missionary Bradn Buerkle, all of the people of the Lutheran Churches in Russia and especially Pastor Vitaly Mohr newly installed as pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Vladivostok as the successor to long time Pastor, Manfred Brockmann.

Consider making a contribution toward the ministry of the Russian Far East or becoming a sponsor congregation for Pastor Alexander Lapochenko serving in the Russia Far East.
