

ONE IN CHRIST

Week of October 11 - October 17, 2021

PASTOR'S WORD

On Sunday, we will be celebrating the sacrament of Communion with three of our children. When we gathered to talk about what this meant, we looked at several scripture passages, and there were two things we read that all of us can keep in mind whenever we celebrate communion.

First is the promise of our baptisms. In Luke, when Jesus baptized by John, he hears God's voice saying the most important words we may ever hear: "You are my child, whom I love" These words were spoken not just to Jesus, but to each one of us. This is why we celebrate baptism! We are each and every one of us God's beloved. There is nothing that can ever change that.

Second is that, over and over in our scriptures, God feeds God's people! Everything we have has come from God. When the Israelites were hungry in the desert, God provided manna for them to eat. There was plenty of loaves and fishes for over 5,000 people, and there is plenty for everyone to share in the abundance. And the last thing Jesus did with his disciples before he died was share a meal: giving thanks to God, breaking bread, and letting them know that in that meal he was giving nothing less than his very self.

Every week when we celebrate Communion, we remember these two things. We are God's beloved children, and nothing can change that. And God feeds us . . . in Jesus, God has given God's self to us, and there is an abundance that is available for all. We are called to remember these promises every time we come together in Worship, and especially when we celebrate Communion.

So next time you celebrate Communion, hear God's words to you: You are my child whom I love! In you I am well-pleased!

All Saint's Day

November 7, we will celebrate All Saint's Day. Please send the names of those you love who have died to Lisette at office@christwg.org and we will speak their names aloud in Worship that day.

Saturday Evening Service

Saturday Evenings in October, 5:00 PM, on the Christ Lutheran front lawn, weather permitting.

We will gather in the churchyard this Saturday at 5:00pm so plan to join us!

Bring your lawn chairs and blankets to the front yard of the church. The services will be geared more towards families, but all are welcomed to attend! The service itself will feel familiar in some places but different in others - we are excited to reimagine prayer, offering, and especially communion. In fact, communion will be a shared meal that we will provide. Dinner will be provided!

Pastor Meagan, Alena, Kate H., and Jesse

Pastor Meagan's Sabbath Day

Going forward, Pastor Meagan will be taking Thursdays as her regular Sabbath Day. If you need something on Thursdays, please contact Lisette and she can assist you. Pastor Meagan will not be checking e-mail on Thursdays, so if you have an emergency that requires Pastor's immediate attention, please call or text her and she will respond when she can.

Stewardship & Offerings

We continue to worship and reach out to people in different ways than we're traditionally accustomed. Staff and members are reaching out proactively to make sure everyone in our congregation is cared for, and connected, as much as possible. We are re-imagining ministry! Now more than ever, it takes all of us to make that happen.

We can continue to fund our church and the important work we're doing with a few easy clicks:

1. Visit our donation website directly or go to www.christwg.org and scroll down to the 'Give Now' button.
2. You may make a one time or recurring gift. There are NO FEES to withdraw directly from your bank account. Fees do apply for debit/credit card transactions.
3. Optional: set up a profile to be able to change your recurring gifts at any time or view your giving history.
4. Want to walk through the steps with someone? Contact Kate Hoerchler, 314-805-1751, katehoerchler@gmail.com

If you prefer to make your offering by check or cash, there are mailing envelopes included in your offering envelope package.

October 24 Welcome new members

October 31 Mark Roock will interview Martin Luther, who started the Reformation in Germany during the 16th century. Dr. Luther will travel 500 years and 4500 miles to tell us what happened then and how the Reformation continues in the 21st century

On October 10 we heard from Sarah Unsicker, Missouri State Representative from the 91st district, who is serving her third term. She told us she serves on three committees: Children and Families, Budget, and Downsizing Government. To work in the partisan environment of the Missouri Legislature, she finds common ground with colleagues. Then she uses those commonalities to build relationships and honors those relationships by keeping her word.

A large part of Rep. Unsicker's job is helping constituents navigate various State Government agencies. Here's how to contact her: Sarah.unsicker@house.mo.gov, 573-751-1285

Memorial Service for Helen Hedderig

Tuesday Bible Study

The Tuesday morning Bible study group will resume their weekly meetings at 10 a.m. Tuesday, October 12, in the Parish Hall. Most recently, we've been working our way through the book of First John.

"The letter articulates important matters for disciples of all times. It underlines central affirmations and practices for faithful discipleship. It shows the importance of working to maintain the unity of the Christian community. It also raises the troubling issue of how to handle disagreements. Are there limits to diversity? Are there litmus tests for Christian identity? In what circumstances is separation the best solution?"

(from the introduction by Prof. Warren Carter)

Stephen Ministry Support (www.stephenministries.org)

The Stephen Ministers of Christ Lutheran Church provide individual, confidential support to congregation members during difficult times. And these are particularly difficult times. Symptoms of depression and anxiety have significantly increased during the coronavirus pandemic. Isolation has led to feelings of loneliness, sadness, hopelessness, stress, anger, and loss of employment and income. Additionally, the challenges of life such as chronic illness, loss and grief, and family and/or marital problems are always present.

Stephen Ministers listen, encourage, and offer emotional and spiritual care to people experiencing such difficulties. If you could benefit from the one-to-one confidential support of a Stephen Minister, contact Stephen Leaders Linda Griffith (314-504-1274) or Carolyn Crowe (314-277-2164).

Churches Together for Justice

Hi!

All the Churches Together for Justice high school and middle school youth groups are invited to Webster Groves Presbyterian Church on Sunday, November 14. We are inviting youth groups and their mentors to dinner first at 5 pm. We are still working out logistics but plan to have a simple dinner outside on our parking lot and then go into our socially distanced sanctuary for Fahima's presentation/discussion about life in Afghanistan for a young person and how we can welcome our new Afghan neighbors when they arrive in St. Louis. We are asking that everyone wear a mask inside. The presentation/discussion will be from 6 - 7 pm.

I'll need an approximate head count of how many will be attending as we get closer to the date (the week before). I'll send out a request for this. I think this could be the start of some exciting collaborations between our youth!

Enjoy your day!
